The hour is 2 p. m. An elaborate reception is planned by the local committees, headed by John Prude, manager of the Swift Theatres in Cameron.

Bill Elliott, great star of Western Films and popular idol with Milam Theatre goers, will be here for the Bond Rally.

A big feature of the program to be given by the stars will be Jimmy Wakely and his singers.

BOND SHOW CAMERON THEATRE JUNE 28TH

More thumb tacks have been used by lonely fighting men overseas to pin up pictures of Betty Grabble than any currently famous movie star.

That is why Betty is called the "Pin Up Girl."

The new 20th Century Fox hit "Pin Up Girl" packed with songs, romance and high hilarity, will be on the screen at the Cameron Theatre Wednesday, June 28, as the 5th War Loan Bond Premiere picture.

This dazzling technicolor Musical triumph will be shown for one day only. There will be no matinee performance.

Admission to this great show will be conditioned on your purchase of a bond.

John Prude, manager of the Cameron Theatre, will have a bond booth in the lobby of the theatre. The rules have been changed to require bonds to be purchased at the theatre. No admission will be given unless bonds are bought at the booth.

Mr. Prude feels he is most fortunate in getting this picture for his current effort to aid the 5th War Loan.

Local theatres are sponsoring the appearance here on Saturday of three movie stars, headed by Bill Elliott, in the interest of the 5th War Loan.

NEGROES DENIED VOTE IN MILAM PRIMARIES

Negroes will not be permited to vote in Democratic Primaries in Milam county.

The Democratic Executive Committee in session here Monday voted unanimously to preserve the traditional white ballot and election managers will get instructions before the first primary on June 22 to deny nebroes the vote.

In a telegram to the local chairman, J. B. White, received Saturday from George Butler, State Chairman, the matter of opening or restricting the ballot was left to the discreation of the several committees.

The State Committee was asked for inctructions but having taken no action as a result of the Supreme Court Decision which struck down the Texas Primary laws, the county committees were told to handle the matter as they saw proper.

As a result of this attitude on the part of the State Committee there will be no uniform action in the state, as a number of counties will permit negroes to vote.

White Tells Rotary About Invasion Of The Solomon Islands

The invasion of Guadalcanal, first grand scale amphibian operation in the South Pacific against the Japs, was told in a moving story of fast combat by Joe Bill White Wednesday to members of the Rotary Club and their guests.

White, who volunteered when 16 years old, for the navy on December 15, 1941, eight days after Pearl Harbor, took part in the invasion of Guadalcanal and told the story as he saw it, giving many interesting details.

He praised the Marines and declared that the Second Marine Division is the greatest fighting unit in the history of the world. Within the limits of military security the battle scenes were described. He told of the landings and the subsequent bitter battles and hardsips endured by the early invasion units.

White served 2 years south of the Equator before he was transfered to Naval Officers School at Southwestern University. He is home on a 14 day vacation from school.

Amphibious warfare is hazardous in the extreme and White told of his experiences not only at the invasion of Guadalcanal but Tulagi and Bouganville. The duty of his branch was to get the Marines on land and to keep them supplied. In the early days of the Pacific war operations were carried out under extreme hazards. The Jap southern march was stopped by the navy and marine corps.

White had two landing craft shot from under him and in addition was wounded in the left arm on Guadalcanal. The Jap, he says not only has a medieval mind he is totally lacking in humane or civilized traits. The great job in the Pacific he says is to kill out the race as far as necessary and force them into a state where they cannot make war. This, he thinks will take two years or more.

Lost With Grayback

JAMES RAY DODSON

Member of the Crew of the American Submarine, Grayback, Lost at Sea

* * * * * *

CAMERON BOY IS LOST IN SUBMARINE SINKING

James Ray Dodson, member of the crew of the famous submarine, Grayback, reported missing in action somewhere in the Pacific early this year, is now believed to have lost his life when his ship was sunk.

The Navy Department announced Tuesday from Washington that the submarine, Grayback, had been lost and all next of kin of the crew, had been notified.

This is the first news received since the submarine was reported missing, months ago. There was no disclosure whether the sub was sunk by enemy action. Capt. John Anderson Moore, commander of the Grayback, lost his life along with the crew members.

James Ray Dodson, son of J. R. Dodson of Cameron, in his naval service had been cast in an heroic role. He went to sea considerably younger than most boys who felt there was a Star Spangled Banner waving somewhere.

He visited his father and friends here last winter. At that time the Grayback had become famous among the great fleet of undersea craft of the navy. The first story of the exploits of the ship and crew was published in Liberty Magazine. At the time James Ray was in Cameron he told The Herald something of the story of his ship.

On Christmas day of 1942 the sub, Grayback, lay off the harbor of a principal Japanese homeland port and during the months that James Ray served on this ship it had accounted for some 18 Japanese ships, one a cruiser and one a destroyer, the other 16 being merchant vessels of various types.

Mr. Dodson, father of the hero, could not be contacted Tuesday. He has been an employe of the City Park system for several years.

A. B. RICHARDS DIES HERE EARLY SUNDAY

A. B. Richards, 76, for many years a resident of Milam county, died at his home in Cameron at 7:30 a. m. Sunday, June 18, 1944.

Funeral services were held at 4 p. m. Monday, June 19, 1944, from the family residence with Rev. C. W. Sanders, Pastor First Baptist Church conducting.

Mr. Richards had been gravely ill for months. He formerly lived and was a large farmer in the North Elm community.

Mr. Richards is survived by his widow; five sons, T. B. Richards, Corpus Christi; R. F. Richards, Freeport; Jake Richarks, Cameron; Jack Richards, Corpus Christi and Jim Richards, Cameron; daughters Mrs. Thurman Donaldson, Cameron and Mrs. Grady Allen of Cameron; seven sisters and one brother. There are 17 grand children and 3 great grand children surviving.

Mr. Richards was born September 5, 1868, in Barto, Ga. He came to Texas in 1898. He was married to Miss Annie Bishop on December 24, 1888. He was a member of the North Elm Baptist Church, becoming a member 36 years ago.

14 ENEMY SHIPS ARE SUNK OR DAMAGED

Carrier based United States war planes Monday, June 19, took a heavy toll of the Japanese fleet in a battle in the waters between the Mariana Islands and the Philippines.

It was a battle between planes and ships. No units of the American fleet were involved in the battle, but carriers of the fleet launched the planes which played havoc with the Japs, sinking or damaging 14 enemy ships and shooting down 353 planes.

American losses were reported at 49 planes.

Here are the Jap losses:

1 aircraft carrier sunk and another danamged so badly it is believed to have been sunk.
1 destroyer sunk.
3 tankers sunk.
3 aircraft carriers damaged.
353 planes shot down.
8 ships sunk or damaged.

The American losses:

49 planes shot down but many of the crew members saved.
1 battleship damaged.
2 aircraft carriers damaged.

The communication came from Admiral Nimitz in Pearl Harbor.

The Japs ran away when night fell over the Pacific and since that time have not been seen. They are believed to have put back into safety in the harbor at Manila or closer to home waters.

American naval authorities said it was a great victory but no cripling blow to the Japs.

On Saipan fighting is very bitter but Jap resistance is steadily weakening. Fighting is hampered by natives breaking through the Jap lines to get out of range of American guns.

REDS TAKE VIIPURI IN NEW PUSH ON FINLAND

The Allied army of invasion is within 4 miles of Cherbourg, great port built by Napoleon on the Channel Coast of Normandy in France.

On Monday the American 9th Division had bottled up 30 thousand Nazi on the peninsula and with the army in 4 miles of the great port, the finish for the Germans is a matter of hours, or at the most days.

With a beachhead cleared reinforcements were pouring in to France. The time will shortly come when the United Nations will be able to launch a full scale offensive against the Germans in their march on Paris. With the Allied thrust will be firepower and seasoned armies.

Despite the favorable position in which the Allies were facing the Germans the resistance was bitter as the Germans fought fanatically and often suicidally.

The fighting Tuesday in the air was on a large scale with 1500 heavy bombers blasting Hitler's Europe. A noon report said that 21 bombers made forced landings in Sweeden.

German's secret weapon, diescribed now as a toy with no possibilities at present, was on the decrease. Factories where the robots are made were believed partially destroyed by the Allies.

The French have taken the island of Elba where Napoleon once was held in exile.

The Red Army has captured Viipuri from the Finns in their drive to knock that Baltic state out of the war. It appeared that Finland may soon have to give up the struggle.

Over in the Pacific there was hard fighting on Saipan where landings have been made and where the Allies are striking within 1500 miles of Tokyo.

Dr. T. Leland Denson has returned home ofter spending several weeks attending medical school in Chicago. He also recently attended a medical school in New Orleans. He is now in his offices attending to practice.

Power Company Mails Checks For $300,000 To Patrons In System

The first semi-annual installment of a $300,000 yearly payment to residential and commercial customers throughout the territory served by the Texas Power & Light Company, according to J. Albert Young, Jr., manager of the company at Cameron, is now in the mails in the form of checks to individual customers.

"The payment," Mr. Young explained, "is in accordance with the terms of the company's contract with the Southwestern Power Administration for the purchase and distribution of a substantial portion of the power to be generated at the Denison Dam.

"Our company has agreed," Mr. Young said, "to make, during the life of the contract, an annual payment to our residential and commercial customers of not less than $300,000; and, to give a 10 per cent annual credit amounting to approximately $100,000 to certain governmental agencies and military establisments served by the company.

"These payments," Mr. Young further explained, "are to be made by check, semi-annually, to each individual customer classified as residential or commercial. The check now in the mail represents each customer's semi-annual share of the $300,000 total earmarked for residential and commercial users. Customers who so desire may, as a matter of convenience, cash these checks at par at the Company's offices."

Texas Power & Light Company will begin receiving power under the contract when the Denison Dam power plant is ready for regular commercial operation. Subject to certain limitations, the contract will remain in effect until six months after the cessation of hostilities in the present war or until July 1, 1949, whichever date is earlier.

Lucille Stedman and Sgt. Dana Monroe Married Thursday In Early Twilight Ceremony At First Methodist Church; Home Reception Is Held

Miss Lucille Stedman and Sgt. Dana Monroe, United States Army Air Corps, were married at 7 p. m. Thursday, June 15, 1944, at First Methodist Church in Cameron.

Rev. K. R. Isbell, pastor of the church, read the impressive ring ceremony. The wedding held at early twilight, was an event of wide social importance because it links the lives of two prominent young people whose families share largely in the history of Cameron and central Texas.

Miss Catherine Monroe, sister of Sgt. Monroe, gave the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Lincoln Barber, II, who sang "Because" by Guy D. Harelot. Miss Monroe played softly during the ceremony, "Traumeria."

The bride and bridegroom came in unattended to stand at the altar which was beautifully decorated with tall floor baskets of pink gladiolas and white shasta daisies.

The ceremony was witnessed by many friends of the family

The bride was beautiful, and wore an attractive white traveling suit with tan accessories. Her corsage was made of orchids.

The bridegroom wore the uniform of the Air Corps of the United States Army.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hilry H. Stedman and was born and reared in Cameron. After completing high school here she attended University of Texas and for more than a year has held a responsible place with Citizens National Bank in Cameron. Her father, Hilry H. Stedman, has long been prominent in business circles. He also is a native of Cameron.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Monroe and was born and reared in Cameron. Following graduation from high school here he attended Texas A. & M. College for a short time. He volunteered for the Army Air Corps and for more than a year has been stationed at Las Vagas, Nevada. He is being transfered to Laredo, Texas, where he will continue as a gunner instructor.

Miss Catherine Monroe, sister of the groom, was beautiful in aqua mesh, and wore a corsage of white gardinias. Mrs. Barber was beautifully attired in a dress of light blue with a corsage of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride for the bridal party and close friends of the families.

Ushers for the wedding ceremony were Jack Lewis, Jr., and Roy McDermott who wore conventional civilian suits with a white boutonier in the coat lapel.

Sgt. Monroe and bride left Cameron early in the evening for San Antonio. It was thought they may also visit the army air corps base at Laredo where they will make their home until Sgt. Monroe is assigned to foreign duty.

Intrepid Battle to Save Lineman's Life Ends In Failure; Oliver Blackman Electrocuted By 115 Volt Wire While Working Telephone Cable

For almost 5 hours late Thursday an intrepid though losing battle was waged by eleven men to restore life to the body of Oliver Blackman, who was killed by a 115 volt service wire to a residence as he worked on a telephone cable off the business district on Houston street.

Blackman who was taken from the cable in a lifeless condition around 3:30 was pronounced dead at 10 minutes before 8 p. m. in an ambulance parked near Cameron Hospital, where he had been taken shortly after being removed from his cable buggy 27 feet above ground.

The accident occured on North Houston street near the residence of D. D. Harris. The body of the lineman was discovered by Mrs. Alfred Price, a neighbor to the Harris family. She heard the lineman scream for help and ran out the front door of her home to the sidewalk where she saw Blackman, hanging limply from the cable, his left leg caught in the electric wire and his right hand hanging over the telephone cable. Mrs. Price rushed to her telephone and called help.

At the Texas Power & Light office, J. Albert Young, district manager, had just returned from the Firemen's convention at Waco. When the call came in he said that not more than 3 minutes elapsed before W. L. Kilgore, power company lineman and himself reached the spot where Blackman was hanging from the cable. Mr. Kilgore's quick work and subsequent help with efforts to revive Blackman brought praise from Mr. Young and others.

When the power company men reached the cable row Blackman was caught securely and held through contracting muscles to the wires and cable. His left leg was shown to have been burned slightly by the wire while his right hand hung securely over the lead cable. It was believed he may have remained in this condition much longer than is known.

Mr. Kilgore raced to the power line across the street and climbed up to cut off current. Then he climbed the telephone pole and made his way along the cable to the body of Blackman. A rope from the ground was used to lower Blackman to safety after he had been removed from his equipment, part of which was the cable buggy by which they trolley the lines to make repairs.

It required about 8 minutes from the time the power company offficials arrived to lower Blackman to the ground where artificial resipration methods were begun. In a few minutes Dr. T. Leland Denson reached the body and administered gas and hypodermics. The proper conditions under which to apply resuscitation are that the patient be not moved and for sometime locally trained men worked with the body. Earl Moseley was the first to reach Blackman. He continued to work with the body as the ambulance sped to the hospital.

After reaching the hospital the body remained in the ambulance where men trained in resuscitation methods took turns at applying respiratory stimulation.

This battle continued for almost 5 hours and until all hope had been abandoned. Dr. T. Leland Denson, Dr. E. Rischar and Dr. Clifford Swift pronounced Blackman dead.

Dr. Denson telephoned The Herald to request a public statement of his thanks to the men who worked so valiantly to save Blackman. "They are all excellently trained and from the time Blackman was lowered to the ground they applied correct methods and continued until further effort was useless. I want to thank them most heartily for their aid," concluded Dr. Denson.

Those who assisted in the five hour attempt to revive Blackman were: W. L. Kilgore, J. Albert Young of the Texas Power & Light Company, Earl Moseley, Bert Nicholson, Johnnie Andres, Richard Hester, of the Community Public Service Co., Frank Polansky of the Lone Star Gas company; Moody Hayes of the water company, J. M. McLean of the Telephone Company, Thomas Everett of the telephone company and Pete Mikula of the Cameron Machine Shop.

When electrocution occurs the body muscles freeze and contract and the heart ceases to beat in regular intervals, its action stymied to a slight quiver or pulsation short of normal function. Often men are revived by slight blows on the sole of the foot to shock the heart into operation. None of the accepted methods of resuscitation brought results.

Low voltage wires are most dangerous and this as well as hundreds of similar accidents constitute a warning.

Blackman is married and the father of a small daughter. His home is in Taylor. The body was taken to Taylor Thursday night by the Marek-Burns Funeral Home.

Negroes Celebrate Emancipation Day

Cameron negroes were observing Emancipation Day Monday, June 19.

It was estimated that about one million negroes in Texas were observing the day. War time restrictions interfered with clebrations generally.

Today marks the 79th year of freedom for the negroes in Texas. President Lincoln issued his proclamation to free the slaves on January 1, 1863, but it was not until June 19, 1865. On June 18, 1965, General Granger and federal troops landed at Galveston and the following day the President's proclamation was read in Texas.

Homer Plantl of the Camp Hood postoffice is in Cameron spending a few days.

T Sgt. John B. Dodson, Jr., of Randolph Field And Miss Winnie Siegmund of Giddings, Married Here Sunday; To Make Home In San Antonio

A wedding of wide general interest to many here and elsewhere over the state occured here Sunday evning at 7 o'clock, June 18, 1944, when Miss Winnie Siegmund of Giddings, became the bride of T Sgt. John B. Dodson, Jr., of Randolph Field.

The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. Ira Lee Sanders, Pastor of the North Central Church of Christ, in the home of Sgt. Dodson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Dodson, Sr.

The double ring ceremony and home surroundings made an impressive wedding scene. The bride and groom were attended by Miss Viola Siegmund, sister of the bride and K. C. Dillard, both of Austin.

The bride was beautiful in a tailored suit of Aqua blue with white accessories to match and a corsage of white carnations. The groom wore the uniform of the United States Army Air Corps.

The room where the ceremony was held was beautifully decorated with roses and the altar formed of pink gladiolas. Only relatives and a few close friends witnessed the ceremony.

Sgt. Dodson and bride left immediatly for San Antonio where they will make their home as long as he is stationed at Randolph Feild.

Mrs. Dodson will teach in the Durham Business College in San Antonio as long as Sgt. Dodson remains there. He is an Athletic Director at Randolph Field.

CHERBOURG CUT OFF BY ALLIED FORCES

Cherbourg, Nazi held port on the Normandy peninsula, was cut off from the French mainland at noon Saturday by hard fighting American army units.

General Omar Bradley, in command of the American field army, said he believed the Germans will defend Cherbourg to the last man. Other quarters expressed the belief that the Germans may be attempting to evacuate the entire peninsula.

Considerable German forces are trapped in the area around Cherbourg.

The German army was running out of Italy fast. A noon report said that the American 5th is now 100 miles north of Rome and the British 8th Army advanced 28 miles overnight.

The Mannerheim line in Finland has been completely destroyed by the Red Army advancing rapidly. The Finnish army is in retreat and burning all bridges and destroying equipment which might fall into the hands of the Russians. Finland will soon be out of the war.

A German newscast said that a state of siege has been declared all along the northern coast. This would indicate fear of Russian advances through the Baltic. In the event of an error in the transmission of the news the German coast off Denmark may be indicated.

The Midget plane which was described as the German secret weapon, continues to strike England. Revised estimates say it is not controlled by radio but driven by fuels, on the principle of the rocket.

A heavy attack has been carried out on Bonin island 600 miles south of Tokyo. Hard fighting was in progress on Saipan where the Americans report heavy resistance.

John B. Stutts and Miss Ruth Prideele Fields were married Thursday afternoon, June 15th, in the office of Judge Jeff T. Kemp, the Judge reading the ceremony. Both are natives of Milam county.

GERMAN GENERAL SAYS NAZIS NEAR DEFEAT

General Von Bladderphlot of the German army Monday said that the Germans have been on the brink of defeat for several months.

Discussing the situation further General Bladderphlot said that it is an accepted fact that the Germans have suffered greatly during the past four years.

Whether this gesture was one of the expected symptoms of a coming German surrender to save her armies and correct her mistakes for the next war, will become known soon enough.

Wiston Churchill, in London, said that the summer months, might bring complete success to the Allies. If true, the Axis nations will escape punishment.

Mrs. Ed Posival and Mrs. Floyd Fritz were business vistors in Cameron on Saturday.

Large Tarantula Is Caught Here; Much Feared Over World

One of the largest Texas tarantulas seen in these parts in years was snared early Thursday in the yard of Dr. and Mrs. Burns Bever in east Cameron.

Mrs. Bever, the former Miss Margaret Ford, had the spider placed in a glass jar and brought it to town and to The Herald plant.

Many such specimen are brought to The Herald. It has been the policy of the paper to give as much information and scientific data as possible in answer to all questions.

In this instance this paper has been asked if the tarantula is poisonous? The answer is yes. The latest research shows that without exception they are venomous. The Texas tarantula has figured in many tall tales of hell along the border as well as the diamond back rattler.

The tarantula is a species of venomous spider and sometimes grows to enormous size in Texas, some three inches in length. They are a hairy mygaloid spider and much dreaded in the Southwestern part of the United States. Another species of tarantula has been found in south Europe. Its bite is much dreaded and was long supposed to produce tarantism.

Tarantula bites are not necessarily fatal, results often being the rotting away of flesh where the poison is injected from the bite.

$8,512 IN E BONDS SOLD HERE FRIDAY

Sale of E Bonds in the city of Cameron indicated a brisk buying trend and that the quota of $70 thousand might be reached much quicker than anticipated.

The Daily Herald received reports from Cameron banks at noon Friday and $8,512 in E bonds were sold Friday. This makes a grand total of $30,117.40 a little less than half the quota. It was almost certain half the quota would be reached by the week end.

Purchase of negotiable issues for the day amounted to $141,000. The grand total of these bonds todate is $356,500. This is an impressive total and is only less than one third the entire negotiable security quota for the county.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Hardin are the parents of a baby girl, born at 10:30 a. m. Saturday, June 17, 1944, at Cameron Hospital. The baby has been named Rebecca. She weighed seven and a quarter pounds. The mother is the former Miss Dorothy Blaylock. The father is with McLane Company and came to Cameron some years ago from his old home at Rosebud.

Harry Tag of Black Land Field, Waco, has returned to his assignment after spending a week here with his wife.

TP & L Wins National Home Service Award

Texas Power & Light Company was named winner of one of the national prizes in the Laura McCall awards for home service activity given by McCall's Magazine and administered through the Edison Electric Institute, it was announced following the recent annual conference of the institute in New York.

The Laura McCall awards are designed to give public recognition to the accomplishments of home service departments of utility companies throughout the country in furthering the advancement of electrical living through the use of electrical equipment in the home; in stressing the importance of the care and maintenance of this equipment, and in promoting nutrition education. Winner of the fourth prize, the Texas Power & Light Company received a framed illuminated parchment, with a $50 War Bond issued to the director of the Home Service Department.

The Company's program during 1943 consisted of personal calls on customers and lectures to various groups by home service advisors to provide information on care and use of electrical equipment during wartime, on planning meals, preparing foods and food conservation. The company's advertising and window displays also stressed these timely subjects throughout the year. The Company also emphasized in its home service program the need for growing Victory gardens and provided employees and the public generally with information on canning and dehydration as a means of preserving foods.

RESOLUTION

WHEAREAS, in the wisdom of our Heavenly Father, He has removed from our midst a member of our church and clerk of the Session, Judge Graham Gillis, and;

WHEREAS, in his untimely going, a feeling of sorrow has come to all of us and to the public generally, and;

WHEREAS, we feel the loss of his careful and painstaking actions and guidance in all deliberations for the common good, his sanguine and cheerful disposition and his spirit of tolerance and kindness, and;

WHEREAS, his counsel was often sought, not only in legal matters pertaining to the business of the church, but in many cases touching the spiritual life and welfare of our church and we always found him willing and ready to give freely of his time and talent for the advancement of the Kingdom of God.

NOW, THEREFORE, Be It Resolved by the Board of Elders of the First Presbyterian church, of Cameron. Texas:

1. That in his passing the church has lost one of its noblest and most faithful members, a man who unselfishly and ably served as Deacon, Elder, Trustee, Church Clerk and Superintendent of our Sunday School, having always in mind the higher ideals of life.

2. That we desire to extend to his family the sympathy of an appreciative church for his services, and;

3. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to his family, a copy furnished the local newspapers for publication and a copy spread upon the official register of the church.

Signed:
James Watson,
Dan Tyson,
Committee.

CARD OF THANKS

To our many friends and neighbors we are deeply grateful for all the kind deeds and words of sympathy expressed during the illness and death of our dear husband and father. To you who gave flowers or in any way aided us at this time we will ever be grateful.
